Young Pin Design Award | A Dream Stage for Emerging Designers

Formerly established in 2001 as the New Generation Design Award, the award was officially incorporated into the Golden Pin Awards brand system in 2015. As the only official award of the New Generation Design Exhibition, Taiwan's largest annual joint exhibition showcasing emerging design talent, the Young Pin Design Award is dedicated to providing a platform for the next generation to unleash their creativity. It also serves as an important starting point for many young designers as they embark on their professional careers.
